

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

8//13/20

Webb Wheel Products, Inc is proud to announce the release of a new “live chat” feature that will be added to our website – www.webbwheel.com. This feature is intended to improve customer support by providing fast, real-time communication via an online chat platform. Live Chat will allow users to instantly receive answers to their questions, thus enhancing the overall customer experience. This is a convenient alternative for customers who prefer online communication over traditional phone calls. Three options will be available to assist our customer base - Aftermarket Support, Dealer Support, & Technical Support. Representatives from each department will be readily available to connect directly with the customer and quickly answer their questions. Webb Wheel Products is committed to innovative customer support solutions that better serve our customers. The chat will go live on Monday, August 17, 2020.
